JAPS WIN BIG BATTLE.

Nineteen Russian Ships are Sunk or Captured and Admiral Drowned.

LAST SLAV FLEET IS ANNIHILATED.

Peace at any Cost Sure to be Sought by Russia; Europe Is Stirred by Greatest of Naval Victories Since Trafalgar.

LONDON, MAY 29.—ON SUNDAY ADMIRAL ROJESTVENSKY'S FLEET WAS SWEEPED FROM EXISTENCE IN THE STORM OF JAPANESE FIRE, AND TODAY EUROPE ROCKS FROM THE SHOCK OF THE GREATEST SEA FIGHT SINCE TRAFALGAR.

THE LAST OF THE RUSSIAN NAVY, THE LAST HOPES OF RUSSIA IN THE EAST, THE DREAMED ASIATIC EMPIRE OF THE CZAR, WENT DOWN IN COMMON RUIN THE WHITE TERROR OF RUSSIA IS AT AN END AND THE YELLOW TERROR OF JAPAN STANDS PANOPLED AND VICTORIOUS IN THE PATH OF HISTORY.

TWO BATTLE SHIPS, ONE COAST DEFENDER, FIVE CRUISERS, TWO SPECIAL SERVICE SHIPS AND THREE DESTROYERS SUNK, AND TWO BATTLE SHIPS, TWO COAST DEFENDERS, ONE SPECIAL SERVICE SHIP AND ONE DESTROYER CAPTURED, IS THE TOLL OF BATTLE.

MOREOVER, THERE ARE 2000 RUSSIAN PRISONERS IN JAPANESE HANDS AND PROBABLY 5000 CORPSES, EITHER DRIFTING IN THE KOR'AN STRAITS OR LOCKED IN IRON HULKS AT THE BOTTOM OF THE SEA. ALL THIS, WITH PRACTICALLY NO JAPANESE LOSS.

IN LONDON THERE IS CELEBRATION. IN ST. PETERSBURG THERE IS SOMETHING LIKE BLIND TERROR. IN THE OTHER CAPITALS OF EUROPE THERE IS OPEN-EYED CONSTERNATION AND ALARM.

RUSSIAN ADMIRAL DROWNED.

WASHINGTON, MAY 30 3:21 A M.—THE POST THIS MORNING SAYS:

THE NAVY DEPARTMENT HAS RECEIVED AN OFFICIAL TELEGRAM FROM TOKYO SAYING THAT THE BATTLESHIP KINAZ SOUVAROFF, VICE-ADMIRAL ROJESTVENSKY'S FLAGSHIP, WENT DOWN IN ACTION, AND VICE-ADMIRAL ROJESTVENSKY WAS LOST.

"PEACE AT ANY PRICE" THE CRY.

ST. PETERSBURG, MAY 30.—AFTER WAITING VAINLY ALL DAY AND THE EVENING FOR DIRECT NEWS FROM THE SCATTERED REMNANTS OF ROJESTVENSKY'S DESTROYED AND BATTERED FLEET, THE RUSSIAN ADMIRALTY AT MIDNIGHT NO LONGER ATTEMPTED TO HOLD OUT AGAINST THE OVERWHELMING EVIDENCE POURING IN FROM ALL DIRECTIONS.

THE EMPEROR WAS COMPLETELY PROSTRATED BY THE NEWS AND BROKE DOWN AND WEPT. THE EFFECT OF THE DISASTER WILL BE A TERRIBLE BLOW TO THE GOVERNMENT.

THE FUTILITY OF TRYING TO STAGGER ON LAND IS EVERY WHERE RECOGNIZED AND THE CRY FOR "PEACE AT ANY PRICE" IS SURE TO BE RAISED. THIS TIME IT IS BELIEVED THE GOVERNMENT CANNOT RESIST SUCH A CRY. INDEED, THE RADICAL LIBERALS ARE OPENLY REJOICING IN THIS HOUR OF THEIR COUNTRY'S HUMILIATION. THEY DECLARE THE DISASTER MEANS PEACE AND CONSTITUTION.

GREEN-HART CASE REVERSED.

Dr. Hart Given Judgment For $1,050 By the Court Of Appeals.

Hardinsburg, Ky., May 30.—(Special).—The Green-Hart case has been reversed by the Court of Appeals, giving Hart a judgment for $1,050. Col. Lefe Green instituted the suit, claiming that Dr. J. H. Hart owed him $3,750 over some partnership transactions. Dr. Hart filed answer and asked a judgment against Green for $5,000. In the Circuit Court, Hart obtained a judgment for $2,000. From this judgment both parties appealed, with the result as above.

Injured While Playing Ball.

Hardinsburg, Ky., May 30.—(Special).—Ed Dillon, while playing base ball at Kirk, Saturday, accidentally broke his left leg between the knee and ankle. Dr. John E. Kincheloe set the injured member, and he was brought home in the evening. He will probably be able to resume his duties as deputy county clerk within a month.

USEFUL CITIZEN IS CLAIMED BY DEATH.

Chas. Tinius, Successful Farmer And Well-Known German, Dies Of the Infirmities of Old Age.

Charles Tinius, Sr., one of the county's most successful farmers and useful citizens, died last Thursday morning at 2:30 o'clock at his home about five miles east of this city. Death was due principally to the infirmities of old age. His health had been failing for several years. About fifteen months ago he lost his eyesight but he believed until death that it would be restored.

Mr. Tinius was born in Berlin, Germany, on June 27, 1834. He came to America in 1854 and located at Cannelton, where he worked at his trade of cabinet maker. In 1859 he came to this county and settled on the farm where he died. For nearly half a century he engaged in farming and viticulture, his vineyards being the largest in the county. His life was one of industry and honesty and the business which he built up was the result of his own efforts.

In January 1890, Mr. Tinius was married at Holt to Miss Caroline Bereck, who survives. Of the six children born to the union five are living. They are Mrs. Geo. Unser, of Owensboro, Mrs. Amanda Basham, William, of Seattle, Wash., and James and Charles, Jr. Mrs. Amelia Dick, wife of Daniel Dick, the other child, died in 1890. Mr. Tinius survived also by a half sister, Mrs. Mary Tinius, of Evansville.

In June, 1878, Mr. Tinius united with the Baptist church at Holt.

Mr. Tinius was a subscriber this paper for thirty years. He always paid his subscription in advance on the first of January in each year.

By the death of Mr. Tinius this county lost one of its oldest German citizens, Ulrich Farber and B. Bohler, of this city, being those remaining. The news of his death was received with regret by old friends here, at Cannelton, Tell City and other points.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the family residence, Rev. J. T. Lewis, of Irvington, officiating. The interment was at the family graveyard at Mt. Joseph. Among those from a distance who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Unser, of Owensboro, and Mrs. Mary Tinius, of Evansville.

NOTICE.

All persons owning the estate of J. E. Bucky are requested to call and settle with me. All persons having claims against the estate present the same properly proved.

Death of J. L. Rush.

Webster, Ky., May 30.—(Special).—J. L. Rush, a Union veteran, died at his home at Clifton Mills last Friday. Mr. Rush suffered a paralytic stroke over three years ago, as a result of which he had been confined to his bed ever since. He leaves a wife and eight children.

Work of a Negro Burglar.

Patesville, Ky., May 30.—(Special).—An unknown negro entered the home of S. J. Baker, last Wednesday, while the family was away, and stole a hat and a pair of shoes. He then passed through town and entered the house of John Lynch, taking away with him a few small articles. It is reported that he stole a coat from a new suit of clothes from the residence of J. W. Bradshaw, before he entered Mr. Baker's home.

FARMERS RECEIVE BIDS ON TWINE.

Wheat Growers Have Significant Meeting At Irvington—Cowley & Simmons Get Contract --Some Statistics About Wheat Crop.

THIRD STRONG CO-OPERATIVE MOVEMENT.

Farmers of the Irvington, Bewleyville, Webster and Guston neighborhoods met at Irvington last Saturday for the purpose of receiving bids on 3,000 pounds of binder twine, to be furnished them under one contract. Six bids were made and Cowley & Simmons secured the contract. This meeting was full of significance as it was another evidence of the fact that farmers are, indeed, coming to the front, that they are co-operating for their mutual benefit and that they are having more to say than ever before what they shall pay for the manufacturing articles they are compelled to use in carrying on the industry of agriculture, and at the same time not being antagonistic to any other industry or business.

The bids which were made on 3,000 pounds of binder twine were as follows: McGlothlin & Pigzott—Standard or Sisal twine, 450 feet to pound, $10.25 per hundred pounds.

Plymouth Cordage Company—505 feet to pound, $10.40. Cowley & Simmons—Sisal twine, $9.94; best McCormick, $10.18, C. H. Mills—Sisal twine, $10.12 1/2.

The Irvington Milling Company put in a bid of $10.50 per hundred pounds on 1,200 or 1,500 pounds, and Jolly, Gardner & Co. made a bid of $19.50 per hundred pounds on 1,000 pounds. Geo. Lyddan, Taylor Dowell and C. H. Drury composed the committee that secured bids.

Some interesting statistics concerning the acreage and yield of wheat crops of farmers at the meeting are found in the accompanying table.

Dr. P. W. Foote made a talk at the meeting on the organization of farmers which expressed the sentiments of those present and was appreciated by them.

When it comes to co-operation in a business manner the farmers in the Irvington, Bewleyville and surrounding neighborhoods have no superiors in any section of the county or state, this having been shown by a number of things they have already done that have resulted in mutual benefit. While the farmers in the tobacco growing district of the county have been striving for better prices for their product, the wheat growers in the sections named have been trying to get an equitable price for their products. It will be remembered that last year they held their wheat for one dollar per bushel, and their big wool pool this month is still fresh in the public mind. The meeting at Irvington last Saturday for the purpose already explained adds another movement of hearty co-operation on business principles to the list of the farmers of that part of the county.

SIGNIFICANT RESOLUTION

Adopted Here By Conference Asking For Evangelistic Preachers.

Perhaps the most important act of the Owensboro district conference, M. E. church, South, which met here last week, and one which deserves special mention by itself, was the adoption of a resolution instructing delegates to the annual conference to ask the general conference to empower bishops to appoint preachers having special evangelistic gifts to do work of this character. The resolution was adopted by a vote that was practically unanimous. The resolution was originated with the conference at its session here and was proposed and urged for adoption as such.

At present the Methodists have no evangelistic preachers of their own for this kind of work in this section and it is thought that they are seriously needed. If the resolution is adopted by the general conference it may prove to be the most important work of any of a district conference, making the conference here, otherwise a most successful one in every detail, doubly so, and a meeting of which to be proud.

Other Lodges Are Invited.

Hardinsburg, Ky., May 30.—(Special).—Breckenridge Lodge No. 67, F. and A. M., will meet in regular communication in their new hall Monday evening, June 5 next, when the Master Mason's degree will be conferred on two candidates. Light refreshments will be served after the work. Brethren of sister lodges are cordially invited.

Miss Hart a Graduate.

Saturday's Louisville Times contained a picture of the ten graduates of Potter College at Bowling Green, Miss Lillian Hart, of Big Spring, being one of the number.

INTERESTING EXERCISES

An audience that filled every seat in the auditorium and Sunday school room heard the commencement exercises of the Cloverport High School at the Methodist church last Monday evening. The exercises were interesting and were appreciated by the audience, which was representative and one which showed that there was much interest in the commencement. The commencement was the first held here in seven years. The graduates were the following young ladies: Misses Mary Elizabeth Lamb, Lulu Margarette Stevens, Donald Graham Murray, Addie Louise Babbage, Margaret Bennett Burn, Iva Lorena Ware.

The exercises opened with the invocation, which was delivered by Rev. Bennett, of Hawesville, in the absence of Rev. King. Miss Mammie White rendered a piano solo, "Ballade" by Chopin. W. W. Moorman, Jr., sang "Message of the Violets" from "The Prince of Cilicia," and then came the chief feature of the exercises, the address to the graduates by Dr. R. J. Ale, of Bloomington, Ind., professor of mathematics in the University of Indiana. Dr. Ale's subject was "The Call of the Twentieth Century," and he handled it in a way which elicited many favorable comments. Dr. Ale's address was followed by a solo by Mrs. L. T. Reid, who sang "Dost Know?" by De Koven. Prof. J. P. King, principal of the school, presented the diplomas to the graduates. County School Superintendent Joel H. Pile could not be present to take part in the exercises because of the illness of a relative.

Eight young ladies, pupils of the high school, presented the flowers to the graduates and acted as ushers. The graduates, Dr. Ale, Rev. Bennett and Prof. King occupied seats on the rostrum.

The exercises closed with a song by the young ladies who acted as ushers, and the benediction by Rev. Bennett.

Pen Picture of Jesus.

(New York Press.)

The following is the only reliable pen picture of Christ as seen in actual life, and is an exquisite piece of work painting. It is taken from a MS. now in possession of Lord Kelly and in his library. It was copied from an original letter of Publius Lentulus at Rome. It being the usual custom of Roman Governors to advise the Senate and the people of such material things as happened in their provinces in the days of Tiberius Caesar, Publius Lentulus, Procurator of Judea, wrote the letter to the Senate:

There appeared in these, our days, a man of great virtue named Jesus Christ, who is yet living amongst us; and of the Gentiles he is accepted as a prophet of truth. He raises the dead and cures all manner of diseases. A man of stature somewhat tall, and comely, such as the beholder may both love and fear.

His hair of the color of a chestnut full ripe, plain to his ears, whence downward it is more orient and curling and waving about his shoulders. In the midst of his head is a seam, a partition in the hair, after the manner of Nazarenes. His forehead plain and very delicate; his face without a spot or wrinkle, beautiful with a lovely red. His nose and mouth so formed that nothing can be reprehended. His beard in color like his hair, not very long, but forked. His look innocent and mature. His eyes gray, clear and quick and luminous. In reproving he is terrible, his eyes piercing—as with a two-edged sword—the greedy, the selfish and the oppressor, but look with tenderness on the weak, the erring and the sinful. Courteous and fair-spoken. Pleasant in conversation, mixed with gravity. It cannot be remembered that any have seen him laugh, but many have seen him weep. In proportion of body most excellent—a man for his singular beauty surpassing the children of men.

Wine of Cardui Cured Her.

213 South Prior Street,

ATLANTA, GA., March 21, 1905.

I suffered for four months with extreme nervousness and lassitude. I had a sinking feeling in my stomach which no medicine seemed to relieve, and losing my appetite because weak and lost my vitality. In three weeks I lost fourteen pounds of flesh and felt that I must find speedy relief to regain my health. Having heard Wine of Cardui praised by several of my friends, I sent for a bottle and was certainly very pleased with the results. Within three days my appetite returned and my stomach troubles went on no more. I could digest my food without difficulty and the nervousness gradually diminished. Nature performed her functions without difficulty and I am once more a happy and well woman.

Pastors And Lay Delegates From Seventeen Churches In District Have Four Days' Meeting Here--Prominent Missionary Workers Present--List of Those in Attendance And by Whom They Were Entertained.

CALHOUN IS SELECTED AS PLACE OF NEXT MEETING.

One of the most successful conferences in the history of the Owensboro district, Methodist Episcopal church, South, was held at the Methodist church in this city last week. The attendance and interest of ministers and lay delegates and of citizens was unusually good and the meeting was, no doubt, of great benefit to the visitors as well as the home people. Some very interesting and profitable talks were made by the delegates, both ministerial and lay, and a number of excellent sermons were preached, those at the evening services being heard by especially large audiences. All matters pertaining to the various departments of church work were carefully looked into, valuable ideas were exchanged, and the delegates were filled with new zeal to do better work on returning to their homes. Reports of delegates, pastors and committees showed an encouraging increase in the work being done in some sections. One of the most pleasing features of the conference was the hospitable welcome and entertainment accorded the visitors.

The conference, as stated in the News last week, began on Monday night with preaching by Rev. T. J. Randolph, of Owensboro. The second day was devoted to the Sunday-school conference and the third to the Epworth League conference. Thursday and Friday were the days occupied by the district conference proper.

Of the eighteen churches in the district, all were represented except one, and of these sixteen were represented by the pastor in charge. Besides the pastors and delegates there were visitors from other conferences, missionary workers, and agents of church literature and institutions who lent their helpful presence to the good work.

A list of pastors, delegates and others in attendance at the conference, and the citizens by whom they were entertained, is given, as complete as could be obtained below.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Skillman—Rev. F. M. Thomas, Owensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Skillman—Rev. B. M. Currie, Owensboro; Rev. Geo. E. Foskett, Morgantown.

Mrs. D. H. Severs—Miss Nannie B. Gaines, Huihima, Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gregory—Rev. P. C. Duval, presiding elder Elizabethtown district, Elizabethtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hoffus—W. P. Stephens, Livermore.

In the outline of the work done by the conference, as given in these columns, a large part of the proceedings is omitted, as it is not considered as being of general interest.

Sunday-School Conference.

The Sunday-school conference, the twenty-second in the history of the district, met at 8:15 Tuesday morning. J. H. Walker was elected secretary and Rev. J. T. Rushing, the presiding elder, was conceded to be president of the Sunday-school conference. The reports of the pastors and superintendents were, in brief, as follows:

Lewisport—Two Sunday schools, one evergreen; 194 pupils, eighty church members.

Owensboro Circuit—Four schools, 228 pupils, eighty-one church members; two evergreen; more prosperous than ever before.

Fordville—Three schools, 108 pupils, ninety-five church members; two evergreen schools; reported best school in district at Narrows.

Patesville—S. J. Baker, superintendent, reported school as having done good work.

Hartford Circuit—Two schools, both evergreen, 247 pupils, thirty per cent. church members.

Pleasant Ridge Circuit—Two schools, one evergreen, 190 pupils, twenty-five of whom are church members.

Owensboro—Main street school, 200 pupils, average attendance ninety.

Calhoun Circuit—Three schools, 213 pupils, two evergreen.

Cloverport—One school, 125 pupils.

Vevington Circuit—Out of 180 pupils in schools, 112 church members.

V. G. Babbage made a report of the Cloverport Sunday-school and made some pointed suggestions on the Sunday-school library.

Rev. Silas Newton reported a Sunday-school at Breckenridge with eighty pupils with an average attendance of sixty.

Rev. W. T. Miller spoke on his topic, "Adult Attendance," laying stress on the point that to keep the children in the Sunday-school the parents should bring the children and not send them.

A general discussion followed, after which Rev. P. L. King addressed the conference on the subject assigned him, "Quality of Teaching." He took the position that the teachers should have mental and spiritual qualifications and that the superintendent should have the power of appointing them. After a general discussion of this topic, a recess was taken.

Afternoon Session.

The topic, "How to Keep an Evergreen Sunday-school," was discussed by J. H. Walker.

J. B. Galloway, in discussing the subject assigned him, "Sunday-school Missionary Society," produced facts and figures to show that, unquestionably, all Sunday schools should be organized into a missionary society.

At this point reports of two circuits were made as follows:

Rome Circuit—Three schools, none evergreen; seventy-five pupils, three-fourths church members.

Sulphur Springs Circuit—Seven schools, 375 pupils, 200 church members.

A. D. Leitchfield, secretary and treasurer of the Louisville conference Sunday-school board, made an earnest appeal for the importance of the Sunday-school.

E. S. Boswell, agent of the Methodist Orphan's Home, addressed the conference on the work done by this institution, after which a collection of $16 for the Orphan's Home was taken.

Miss Nannie B. Gaines, a missionary from Huihima, Japan, addressed the conference, telling of the great work being done there and of the urgent need of funds to carry it on. A free will offering of $6.64 for this work was taken.

Evening Session.

The report of pastors was resumed as follows:

Owensboro, Main Street—One school, 175 pupils.

Woodlawn—One school, eighty pupils, sixty average, twenty-five church members.

Livermore—Three Methodist schools, one union; 175 pupils, seventy-five per cent. church members.

Rev. P. C. Duval, presiding elder of the Elizabethtown district, preached the sermon at the evening session, his subject being "The goodness we should manifest to our fellowmen."

Epworth League Conference.

The Epworth League conference met Wednesday morning. Rev. J. T. Rushing was made chairman and W. P. Gordon was elected secretary.

Rev. Currie, of Owensboro, reported that he had one active Senior League with a charter to the Junior, which has been turned into the Junior Missionary Society.

Rev. Gordon reported that Woodlawn had three leagues in good working order.

Rev. Walker, of Lewisport, reported that his league had been resurrected after ten or fifteen years of slumber, and that it is now doing good work.

Rev. Randolph reported that he had organized several leagues but because of lack of leadership they had not done good work.

Rev. Galloway, of Fordville, reported no league and thinks it not practicable to organize.

Rev. Baker, of Sulphur Springs circuit, reported no leagues but thinks he can organize two or more.

Rev. Miller reported a number of good leagues.

W. C. Moorman reported conditions to be such that no league can be organized on Pleasant Ridge circuit.

R. H. Roe reported good league at Rumsey.

Rev. Reid, of Livermore, reported very good league.

No prospect for league in Rome circuit.

Rev. King reported a good league for Cloverport. He believes it to be a great help to him in securing his conference collections.

"How to Interest Our Young Men in League Work," was ably discussed by R. H. Roe. Rev. Foskett addressed the conference on the subject. Rev. King said he was not in favor of separating the boys and girls in the league and spoke of the young people in his league working together harmoniously.

At this juncture Rev. Silas Newton addressed the conference on "League Literature."

Rev. Thomas presented the subject, "Are There Defects in the League Organization," and M. H. Newton, of Owensboro, the subject, "Reading Course."

Dr. P. H. Whistner addressed the conference on the subject of "Church Extension and Rev. Foskett, of the 'Board of Missions' gave a splendid address on missions.

Afternoon Session.

Rev. Boggess reported three Senior Leagues on the Beaver Dam circuit. Rev. Thomas gave a report of two leagues at Little Chapel, Owensboro and Rev. Randolph stated there were from thirty to thirty-five members in his league.

After a number of talks on missionary literature and the circulating library, a committee to plan a missionary campaign in the Owensboro district, was on suggestion, appointed. The committee announced by the chairman was as follows: F. M. Thomas, R. H. Roe, M. H. Miller.

An interesting report of the Women's Home Missionary Society for the district was read by the conference secretary, Mrs. L. L. Basham, of Owensboro, addressed the conference on the W. H. M. S.

Mrs. V. G. Babbage presented the cause of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

A number of other talks on different phases of the missionary work were followed by an earnest and helpful sermon by Rev. W. T. Miller.

At the evening session Rev. Thomas preached an excellent sermon, which was heard by a large congregation.

District Conference.

The district conference proper convened Thursday morning at 8:15. Rev. J. T. Rushing was continued as chairman and Rev. B. M. Currie was elected secretary. The roll was called early during the morning session. The list of pastors and delegates who were present was substantially the same as that that has been given where the homes at which they were entertained was mentioned. Committees were then appointed to report at the afternoon session Friday.

After reports from pastors, Rev. J. L. Reid was called, speaking on the subject assigned, "How to Lay the Foundation for a Revival."

Rev. A. J. Bennett then spoke on "What is a Good Revival?" Rev. W. P. Gordon on "How Should the Pastor Follow up the Work of the Revival?" and Judge Little on "The Pastor and Modern Missions."

At 11 o'clock, Dr. W. R. Lambuth, of Nashville, general secretary of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, delivered an excellent address on the subject of "Prayer and its Relations to Missions."

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session was occupied by the reports of pastors and other routine business, and a number of able addresses. The speakers and their topics were as follows: Rev. Randolph, "The Pastor and the Collections;" Rev. E. R. Bennett, "When, Where and How Should the Missionary Campaign be Conducted?" Rev. E. D. Boggess, "How May We Reach Each Member in Taking the Collections;" Rev. J. F. Baker, "How to Secure the Best Attendance at the Prayer Meeting;" Rev. B. F. Lawhern, "What Constitutes Pastoral Visitation."

Evening Session.

The features of the evening session, and among the most important and interesting of the conference, were the address on missions by Dr. Lambuth and the starting of a "Joiner" fund. Dr. Lambuth's address was one of the most entertaining and instructive lectures ever heard in this city on the subject of missions. He told especially of the work that is being done in Brazil by Rev. E. Joiner and his wife, who were sent from this district, and made a plea for funds to help them in their work.

At the close of his address $177 was pledged by pastors personally and for their churches and by others present, to start a "Joiner" fund.

Dr. Lambuth knows more, perhaps, about missions than any other man in America. He was born in China, is the son of the man who founded the work of the Methodist church in China, is general secretary of the board of missions of the Methodist church, and has traveled all over the world doing missionary work. The people of this city may congratulate themselves on having the pleasure of this man's presence.

Second Day District Conference.

The district conference proper reconvened Friday morning at 8:15. Rev. Rushing was continued as chairman and Rev. Currie as secretary.

S. W. Bennet, of Livermore, was elected lay delegate to the annual conference and S. J. Baker, of Patesville, and W. W. Rawson, of Central City, alternates.

Calhoun was nominated and elected the place for holding the next district conference.

Judge L. P. Little offered a resolution of thanks, which was adopted. The resolution was as follows:

Resolved by this conference that the thanks of its members, both lay and clerical, be tendered to the people of Cloverport for their hospitality to us during this conference.

The reports of the committees on missions, temperance, spiritual state of church and other departments, which were appointed Thursday, were read and adopted.

Rev. W. C. Moorman spoke on the subject assigned "Our Church Literature."

Dr. B. F. Atkins, president of Logan Female College, presented the claims of the school under his care.

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session was devoted mainly to reports of pastors, the renewing of licenses and other routine business.

Evening Session.

At the evening session Rev. W. P. Gordon, of Owensboro, preached the closing sermon of the conference.

District Superintendent Bruner, of the Kentucky Children's Home Society, made a short talk concerning the work and needs of the institution.

Presiding Elder Rushing made some very pleasant remarks about the hospitable manner in which the visiting brethren had been entertained and then the conference adjourned.

READ THIS.

Brownsville, Tenn., May 31, 1904.
Dr. E. W. Hall: Dear Sir—I have used your Great Discovery for kidney and bladder troubles and have been very greatly benefited by it and I can fully recommend it to any one suffering in the same manner. Respectfully,
Giles Rivers, Postmaster.

A TEXAS WONDER

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women; regulates bladder trouble in children. If not sold by your druggist it will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. E. W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. Box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists.

N. C. H. S. Doing Great Work.

Dr. R. H. S. Bruner, district superintendent of the Kentucky Children's Home Society, was in the city last week, on his fourth annual visit here in the interest of the Society. He reports that the Society is placing more destitute children in homes and that more money is being contributed for its support than ever before in its history. His collections in March and April, he says, were larger than those of any other two months since he has been district superintendent. The $15,000 appropriated by the Legislature for the use of the Society has helped it wonderfully, he says.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Very Best.

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says Geo. L. Chubb, a merchant of Harlan, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by Short & Haynes.

Public School Picnic.

The public school picnic was held at Oglesby's woods last Friday instead of Thursday, it being postponed a day on account of the rain. The picnic marked the closing of school for the 1904-1905 session.

One of the greatest blessings a modest man can wish for is a good, reliable set of bowels. If you are not the happy possessor of such an outfit you can greatly improve the efficiency of those you have by judicious use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are pleasant to take and agreeable in effect. For sale by Short & Haynes.

GUS D. SHELLMAN.

Mr. Shellman was elected, on May 8, chairman of the county committee of the Republican party. His call for a county mass convention at Hardinsburg, Monday, June 3, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the senatorial district convention on June 5, when a candidate for State Senator will be nominated, was his first official act of importance. The district convention also was called by Mr. Shellman, as chairman of the Tenth senatorial district.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture and when he was in this office to-day, he asked me about it. He says he had terrible pains in his stomach, and thought he had a cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others, who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Just as simple as the sun shines your stomach can be brought back to its originally pure condition and life sweetened by this lasting and truly the greatest digestant known. Sold by all Druggists.

To Perfect School System.

Frankfort, Ky., May 24.—A meeting of the leading educators of Kentucky, presided over by State Superintendent Fuqua and in which Governor Beckham, President Patterson, of Kentucky state college; President Jenkins, of Kentucky university, and Dr. Blayne, of Central university, participated, is determined to effect a permanent state and county organization to labor to perfect the common school system of Kentucky. This organization will be effected at the meeting at Mammoth cave on June 22 next. Many changes in and amendments to the present school laws of Kentucky will be urged at the coming session of the general assembly.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if it will but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At Short & Haynes' drug store, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Vote to Reunite.

Amid a storm of applause, without debate or a dissenting voice, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church last week, at Winona Lake, Ind., voted to reunite with the Cumberland Presbyterian body, which withdrew from the original denomination February 4, 1810, thereby, in effect, bringing together the two largest branches of the Presbyterian faith.

WON FROM DISASTER

SUCCESS AT TIMES FOLLOWS SEEMING ILL LUCK.

How the Baku Petroleum Deposits Were Discovered—A Dying Seal Disclosed Cape Nome's Gold Secret. The origin of Tinted Paper.

The Baku petroleum deposits, which have yielded millions of pounds' worth of fine oil, are situated in Russian Caucasus.

Years ago a number of cattle were placed on several tracts of land well covered with herbage. The animals, however, refused to feed at first, but later, in their hunger, they ate up the grass ravenously. All of them were taken ill, and a number died.

The cause of their death puzzled the owner for some time. In the long run he discovered, with the assistance of an Englishman, that below the meadows were rich oil springs which caused the grass to be poisoned with paraffin. The loss of his cattle brought a fortune.

A summer or two back a seal wall on the Suffolk coast was blown down by a strong gale, and when the tide rose many acres of low lying land were flooded by the sea. The farmers who rented the land were in despair, and in order to save their crops they started draining the water off.

Two days later the water soaked meadows were a sight wonderful to behold. They were one thick carpet of fine mackerel! A big school of the fish had swept in through the breach in the embankment and been carried to the fields by the incoming sea.

The farmers hired scores of carts to collect the mackerel, and within twenty-four hours the fish had been packed into boxes and were on their way to Billingsgate, where they were sold for over 2000.

Starving, ill clad and bootless, Robert Hyams, a homeless Jew, wandered to the foot of a lonely hill on the Yorkshire moors. There was a strong gale blowing from the east, and to protect himself from the cold he had no choice but to sit down on the summit which was used to store fodder for the sheep.

Stepping through the door, which opened to the eastward, he was astonished to find inside over sixty wild ducks, half stunned, but quacking violently. He slammed the door to and started catching the birds and wringing their necks.

The shed lay right in the flight lines of the myriads of wild ducks that came to Britain from the north and, flying low in their hundreds, some of them had entered the door of the shed, which had been left open by the shepherds, and straggled themselves on the rear wall.

Hyams sold the lucky haul for a sum exceeding £8, and with this he was able to clothe himself respectably and find employment.

On the beach which fringes the cliffs below Cape Nome there is now a prosperous city peopled by 20,000 miners, but at one time, and not so very long ago, the spot was uninhabited. The discovery of the gold in the district and its ultimate prosperity was entirely due to a seal.

Two American hunters had wounded the strange creature, and it led them a pretty dance across the ice and into an unknown land, where the seal was killed after badly wounding one of the hunters.

In its death struggles the seal flung up the ground, and the hunters, to their agreeable surprise, found themselves on a golden strand—the richest one in the world.

The death of a mule brought great wealth to Frederick Butler, a Klondiker, who took part in the memorable "rush" to the gold fields of Yukon. He left his mule standing one day on a plot of land far away from the "claims," and another miner who had a grudge against his fellow digger shot the animal in the neck with his revolver.

The mule fell and in its agony kicked up the ground with its hoofs. When its owner returned he found several "pebbles" of strange weight and shape lying around the dead animal. He cleaned the supposed pebbles and they proved to be nuggets of virgin gold. The dying mule had struck one of the richest veins in Klondike.

A similar case of gold being discovered by an animal occurred in Scotland in 1808. A dog, badly wounded by a shot from a gamekeeper's gun, scratched up some gold on ground which was afterward known as the Dunrobin gold mines, near Oban.

The famous dog was one of the worth of the precious metal was washed out of the mine by the owner of the fortune bringing dog.

The famous dog was one of the worth of the precious metal was washed out of the mine by the owner of the fortune bringing dog.

Subsequently it transpired that where the bird had been was a dried up stream and contained gold dust and small nuggets in large quantities. Reunited parties were once flooded with a mighty shower of mullet, and when the dock gates were opened to allow a ship to pass into the inner basin the fish followed, and the basin became thick with them.

When the tide went down the authorities had the dock sluices opened and the water drained off. Over twenty cart loads of mullet of two pounds in weight and upward were taken away from the floor of the basin, and their sale brought to the coffers of the Rums-gate council nearly £500.

A piece of blue dropped by accident into a vat of pulp was responsible for the production of blue tinted paper, and to this slight disaster the foundation of a great industry is to be traced.

The wife of William East, a poor paper maker, dropped a blue bag into one of her husband's pulp vats, and as a result the pulp assumed a blue tint. East considered the paper to be a grave pecuniary loss, but when he sent it up to London it found a ready market. Indeed, it became so popular that East was asked to supply more. He did and eventually made a great fortune out of his "blue bag" paper.

A chemist of Nuremberg was pouring out some aquafortis from a bottle when a few drops fell upon a pair of gold rimmed spectacles, which he had recently purchased.

"That's a catastrophe," he called to his wife. "I've upset some aquafortis on my new specs."

"Has it spoilt them?" was the reply. "Well," said the chemist, "the glass is corroded where the fluid touched it." Then an idea struck him, and getting a piece of window glass, he endeavored to etch thereon. He succeeded after many failures. By drawing designs on the glass with varnish and applying aquafortis he made them appear as on a gray background. For many years he kept his secret close and made a small fortune out of his designed glass. —Pearson's London Weekly.

THE PRICE OF TORTURE.

Eighteenth Century Punishments and the Costs Thereof.

Among the monuments of superstition which exist to this day, the traveler sees the "witch towers," the torture chambers and the collections of instruments of torture in various towns on the continent—notably at Nuremberg, Ratibon, Munich and The Hague. But perhaps nothing brings the system more vividly before us than the executioner's tools still preserved. Four of these may be seen in the library of Cornell university and among them especially that issued by the archbishop-elect of Cologne in 1575. On four printed folio pages, it enumerates in fifty-five paragraphs every sort of hideous cruelty which an executioner could commit upon a prisoner, with the sum allowed him for each, and for the instruments therein required. Typical examples from this tariff are the following:

1. For tearing a sunder with the hand upon a pile..... 5 25
  2. For cutting off a hand or ear..... 5 25
  3. For beheading and burning..... 5 25
  4. For cutting off a hand or ear..... 5 25
  5. For beheading the pile of wood and kindling..... 4 12
  6. For burning alive..... 4 12
  7. For breaking a man alive on the wheel..... 4 12
  8. For setting up the wheel with the body twisted in it..... 2 02
  9. For cutting off a hand or ear..... 3 25
  10. For burning with a hot iron..... 1 25
  11. For beheading and placing the head upon a pile..... 3 25
  12. For beheading, twisting the body in the wheel and placing the head upon a pile..... 5 25
  13. For tearing a criminal before his execution with red-hot pincers—each tearing of the flesh..... 2 25
  14. For nailing a tongue or hand to the gallows..... 1 25
  15. For the first grade of torture..... 1 25
  16. For the second grade of torture, including setting the limbs upward, with saws for same..... 2 25
- and so on through fifty-five items and specifications.—Andrew D. White in Atlantic.

A Hanging Bridge.

When the Denver and Rio Grande prepared to build through the Rockies engineers said the canyon of the Arkansas could never be penetrated its entire length. There was one spot in this awe inspiring chasm where there was not room for a roadbed on either side of the stream. The walls of the canyon came down to the swift current of the Arkansas without foothold for a man on either side. But an engineer suggested a hanging bridge suspended between the walls of the canyon. The bridge was built with supports imbedded in the solid rock, and across it the heavy transcontinental trains slid daily, with nothing but the slender ironwork between the river and the top of the canyon, 2,000 feet above. Great iron braces, which look almost spider-like in the vastness of the canyon, have been thrown across the gorge, being anchored securely in the sheer sides. Huge cables depend from these braces, holding a long iron bridge, which extends not across but parallel with the course of the river.—New York Tribune.

The City as Is.

You might exhaust yourself looking in atlas and gazetteer for the city of Is, because it is purely legendary. Here is a brief statement of the legend: "The magnificent city of Is was situated on the coast of Brittany where now is the bay of Donanenez. It was built below the level of the sea and surrounded by massive walls. Here in the fifth century was the court of the pious King Gradion and of his wicked daughter, Dahut, who had a pleasant habit of throwing her suitors into a well when their society became tiresome. One of her favorites asked her to obtain for him the silver key which opened the sluice gates in the city wall. Dahut accordingly took the key from her father's neck while he slept, the lover unlocked the gates and the sea rushed in and overwhelmed the city and its inhabitants, including the princess. Only the king escaped. The Breton peasants say that the spirits of the drowned still haunt the spot, and that some of the submerged city are often heard ringing at low tide."

THOUGHTS.

"We can afford to differ on party lines, on the money question and on other questions, but there ought to be no question about a man's honesty who occupies a great public office."—President Roosevelt.

If a farmer says he is going to cut his crop twenty-five per cent. he should do it. Do what you say you'll do. It pays.

California has a law punishing by fine or imprisonment any one who "listens in" on a telephone line. Pretty good law. But how about catching 'em.

The farmers' organizations in Breckenridge county are standing by their guns, pooling their tobacco and reducing the crop. They were a little slow to move in this work, but they moved. And now that they are in it they are standing by it. It's the only way to succeed. Stand by your organization and your work.

Prof. King and board of school trustees certainly deserve the thanks of all lovers of good schools and education for the splendid entertainment given in this town Monday night. Prof. King's splendid address was the right thing and in the right place. It gave this community an uplift along educational lines it has never had before. It was good for the old as well as for the young.

Baron Alphonse Rothschild, who died in Paris, France, last Sunday, laid down the following rules as to habit and conduct, and advised every young man who was ambitious and desired to be a success in business to follow them. They are as follows:

- Shun liquor.
- Dare to go forward.
- Never be discouraged.
- Be polite to everybody.
- Employ your time well.
- Never tell business lies.
- Pay your debts promptly.
- Be prompt in everything.
- Bear all troubles patiently.
- Do not reckon upon chances.
- Make no useless acquaintances.
- Be brave in the struggle of life.
- Maintain your integrity as a sacred thing.
- Never appear to be something more than you are.
- Take time to consider, then decide positively.
- Carefully examine into every detail of your business.

Lovers of nature and the animal world are going to find no article in the June magazines so much to their liking and profit as John Burroughs' essay in the Cosmopolitan, "A Beaver's Reason." Mr. Burroughs explains most clearly and fully the difference between animal and human intelligence, which is a matter on which everybody would like to be informed.

NOT HOW MUCH, BUT HOW?

Wall Street Journal.

We shall resist the temptation to enter into the discussion of the much discussed question of tainted money. We do not propose to express an opinion as to whether this church or that college should accept the philanthropy of John D. Rockefeller or not. We are inclined to think that there is more or less humbug in much of the outcry against tainted money. But the raising of the question should have a wholesome effect.

It is a good thing to have the attention of the country directed to the ethical side of wealth, to the methods employed in acquiring it, and to the effect of these methods upon the well-being of the people. It is a good thing to have a point of conscience raised as to the right of a man to give away money which he has wrongfully obtained, and to the right of an individual or institution to receive stolen or fraudulent wealth. For in answering the question whether our churches or institutions of learning shall become "fences," the receivers of stolen goods, brings vividly to the minds and consciences of the people the fact that the only wealth worth having is that wealth which is the product of honest industry. And when men who have acquired great wealth by dishonest practices and selfish methods find that they cannot even give away their money, and that their riches bear the stamp of public odium, there will be less eagerness to get rich quick by ways that do not square with sound principle.

In this country we are accustomed to ask not what a man is, but what he does; not who were his ancestors, but what he has himself achieved. Let us carry this a little further, and let us get into the habit of inquiring not how much a man is worth, but how he has acquired his money. Then there will be a more wholesome public opinion on the subject of wealth.

BISHOP WOODCOCK'S SUCCESS.

(From the Louisville Herald.)

When Bishop Woodcock came to Kentucky it was predicted that he would be a power for good in this State, a pillar for his church, a joy to all the people. His initial sermon discovered a man of profound spirituality, broad humanity, highest culture and unerring knowledge of human ways. Every appearance of the Bishop since that time has justified early predictions, first impressions and friendly expectations. He is a great churchman and a veritable leader of men, whether they happen to be of his church or not. He has been making a tour of the diocese outside of the city of Louisville, meeting with hearty receptions everywhere. Churches of all denominations are thrown open to him. People of every faith and of no church affiliation crowd to hear him. The Breckenridge News says of the Bishop's recent visit to Clarkport:

Bishop Charles E. Woodcock, Episcopal Bishop of Kentucky, preached at the M. E. church, South, Friday morning, assisted by Archdeacon M. M. Benton, of Louisville. The fine sermon delivered by this scholarly divine was enjoyed by an audience composed partly of a large per cent. of the Episcopals of the city, a number of whom took communion.

How gratifying to have a gifted church leader going about doing good, not offending the sensibilities of anyone, and making all men have the essentials of Christian life. Bishop Woodcock is determined to spare no effort to spread his own belief and ritual, but will clash with no other system. There is enough room for his work. In this state. Its success will injure no other denominational work. The weak, inert church is everywhere a stumbling block to religious progress. The vital church organization imparts vigor to all such combined efforts for human betterment. Bishop Woodcock is an accession to Kentucky's high-class citizenship which this State most cordially prizes.

Death of Hiram Phelps.

Hardsburg, Ky., May 30.—(Special).—J. H. Lennon, Mrs. John D. Beeler and Miss Louise Beeler went to Louisville Friday, to attend the funeral of Hiram Phelps, who died suddenly of heart disease. Mr. Phelps, several years ago, married Miss Nettie Lennon, of this place, who survives with one child.

Impromptu Surgery.

In one of the most fashionable restaurants in Paris a man's life was saved through the skill and quickness of one of the guests. It appears that a man, with three friends, was dining at one of the small tables when a piece of meat lodged in his throat and he found it impossible to get rid of it. His friends in alarm slapped him on the back, but the unfortunate man became black in the face and fell to the floor. A surgeon from the German hospital, who happened to be dining in the cafe, pushed his way through the crowd. He saw at once that the man was dying and that if prompt measures were not taken he would quickly succumb. He ordered one of the waiters to bring him a small funnel such as is used in bottling wine and then, without a moment's hesitation, took out a sharp knife, cut the man's throat, removed the piece of meat and the waiter having returned—quickly inserted the funnel in the opening. The man was then hastily conveyed to the hospital, where a silver tube was inserted in the place of the funnel, and a few hours later he was pronounced out of danger.

The Wisdom of Scrooginess.

The wisdom of Scrooginess, millionaire ex-state driver from John D. Lloyd's novel, "Scrooginess." "It don't make no difference, Mr. Mayor, how rich and ignorant a man is of he only has sense 'nough ter keep on workin' arter gittin' rich. But ef he tries ter quit work 'n' en'y himself by lookin' at things with his eyes 'n' thinkin' with his no 'count brain 'n' stuffin' his no stomach like ef war a hoghead he air a fool. I've got my wind agh, and I'm goin' back ter the gulch." "But, my good man, you are old. Your place is filled by some other man. Perhaps you cannot get it back." "Harder," said Scrooginess, "there ain't no question 'bout my gittin' that place, Mr. Mayor. I owns the line. When I picks up them ribbons thar won't be no agent to say, 'Put 'em down, Scrooginess.'"

The Enemies of Success.

Bright, cheerful, hopeful thoughts and a strong belief in one's own ability to accomplish the thing undertaken are friends that will insure success. The ambitious person should learn as early in life as possible to pick out the friends and enemies of success, and in many cases it will be found that the greatest enemy resides within him. Morbid thoughts, for example, are indelible greater hindrances to success than opposition from outside, and no health, no beauty, no harmony, no real success can exist in the atmosphere of abnormal melancholy or morbid ideas. Overcome the enemies to success within yourself and you will have done much toward reaching the goal of your ambition.—London Answers.

Peculiar To Itself

A Peculiar Animal.

Regarding some of the peculiar characteristics of that strange link between birds and beasts, the duck-billed platypus of Australia, a writer says: "It makes its home like an otter in a bank, tunneling up from the entrance under water some thirty or forty feet, which its powerful forearm muscles make nothing of, to a place where it can find a dry and well drained burrow. Its food consists chiefly of insects, crayfish or 'yabbies,' which it bolts, hard shell and all. It will stay from ten to fourteen minutes at a time under water, searching the mud and stones for these delicacies with its ducklike bill. It makes a most fascinating little pet, becoming very tame and squealing with delight when fed. Its antics are a constant source of pleasure, though if care is not taken it will overeat itself, seeming to have in captivity difficulty in digesting the hard crayfish shells. Its coat is, like the mole's, of an unusually slicken and glossy texture."

The Longest Day.

June 21 is the longest day of the year, the day when the sun reaches its northern limit, the tropic of Cancer. At points on the line of the arctic circle there is the wonder of the midnight sun, and many tourists go long distances to witness the sight. It is singular how accurately the semibarbarous nations were able to observe and reckon. On Salisbury plain, in England, may be seen a cromlech erected by the druids. It is a circle of huge stones which once formed a temple, but the most interesting part of the structure is the sacrificial stone, which is a broad, flat slab so placed that the rays of the rising sun strike full upon it only on the 21st of June. The old guide who shows the place to visitors tells the story that a young girl once said to him, "I suppose you have seen it hundreds of times, haven't you?"

Wouldn't Be Reconciled.

Two of the most eminent lawyers at the Philadelphia bar were Benjamin Harris Brewster and his half brother, Frederick Carroll Brewster. Both had held the office of attorney general for the state, and the first had been attorney general of the United States. They had not been on friendly terms for many years. It is said that on one occasion a mutual friend tried to bring them together, and finally Frederick C. consented to bury the hatchet and sent Benjamin H. a card containing his name, with these words written underneath, "At home on Monday evening, May 1." By the same messenger Benjamin H. sent a card in return, which read, "Benjamin H. Brewster also at home Monday evening, May 1." This ended negotiations.

Unimportant Man.

Many a man goes away from home for a week and imagines that he is missed by the whole community, and when he comes home he finds that there isn't a person in town that knew he had been away.

So work the honeybees, creatures that by a rule in nature teach the act of order to a peopled kingdom.—Shakespeare.

Visiting Mrs. Hardin.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Wolf and little daughter, Marie, of Louisville, Mrs. Ben Clarkson and daughter, Miss Lillie, of Big Spring, Mrs. Will McMillen, of Shawnee, Okla., and Mrs. J. F. Woolfolk and Mrs. O. B. Richardson, of Ekron, are at Half this week visiting Mrs. Virgil Hardin. Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Woolfolk and Mrs. Clarkson are sisters of Mrs. Hardin and Mrs. McMillen and Miss Clarkson are nieces.

Prof. Maple to Teach Again.

Prof. W. B. Maple, of Jefferson county, the former principal of the public school here, who recently sold his interest in the Shelby Sentinel, at Shelbyville, has been elected principal of the public school at Newcastle, one of the best in the State, of which he will take charge September 1.

Will be Married June 7.

A wedding of interest at the Catholic church will be that of Frank Hinsey and Miss Addie Friel, of Victoria, next Wednesday. Mr. Hinsey is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hinsey and Miss Friel is a daughter of Mrs. Joseph Friel. Father C. Brey will officiate.

Recitals at Hardsburg.

Hardsburg, Ky., May 30.—(Special).—Next Monday evening, June 5, local talent, assisted by Miss Pauline moorman, of Hillsboro, Texas, will give a recital at the opera house, for the benefit of the Baptist church.

Mrs. Thomas H. Withers' music class will give a recital at the opera house, on Friday evening.

June 2. A fine program will be rendered.

Rev. J. T. Lewis Preaches Here.

Rev. J. T. Lewis, of Irvington, preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Lewis resigned several weeks ago as pastor of the Baptist church at Irvington but his resignation has not been accepted. The Baptists here have done nothing as yet toward securing a pastor to succeed Rev. S. O. Christian.

Young Plants

Every farmer knows that some plants grow better than others. Soil may be the same and seed may seem the same but some plants are weak and others strong.

And that's the way with children. They are like young plants. Same food, same home, same care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion seems to find it and set the matter right.

Send for free sample! Scott & Bowne, Chemists, 40 Pearl St., New York City, and Druggists.

Lawn Fete June 8.

The members of the Epworth League will give a lawn fete in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bowmer Thursday evening, June 8, for the benefit of the League. Refreshments usually to be had at an affair of this kind will be served. It was at first the intention of the League to give their lawn fete on the vacant lot of the St. George Hotel but grading has been done on the property and it can not now be used for this purpose. It will be the first lawn fete given here for sometime and will no doubt draw a large crowd.

Preaches at Settle Memorial.

Rev. P. L. King preached at Settle Memorial Methodist church at Owensboro Sunday morning and evening, his pulpit here being filled by Presiding Elder J. T. Rushing, who held quarterly meeting. Rev. King supplied for the pastor, Rev. Frank M. Thomas, who delivered the address at a commencement at a school at Smith Grove.

Rev. King left Monday for a visit of several days at his father at Smith Grove. He will return in time to preach at the Methodist church next Sunday.

Can Get Louisville Conference.

Presiding Elder J. T. Rushing, who preached at the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening, stated at the evening service that if Cloverport wanted the annual or Louisville conference that she should get it for the asking. He said also that he had heard all the visiting ministers who were here last week make the statement that they had never known of a place where those in attendance at the district conference had ever been more hospitably or pleasantly entertained than they were here.

For Sunday School Delegates.

Arrangements have been made with the Henderson Route for the early morning train to stop at Irvington on the morning of June 7 for delegates to the State Sunday school convention, which meets at Somerset June 7. This train makes connection with a special train that leaves Louisville at 10 o'clock a. m. Fair from Louisville to Irvington $5.50.

Any delegates on the Branch wishing to catch this train can do so if they will go the evening before to Irvington, where they will be entertained free of charge by notifying J. B. Herndon. Several delegates will go from Webster and Irvington.

First Visit in Seventeen Years.

Mrs. Henry Weatherholt, of Cannelton, Ind., was visiting her old home and relatives last week. Mrs. Weatherholt was a daughter of Coleman Blake and has been away from Cloverport seventeen years, but she says every spot of her girlhood days is as dear to her as it ever was. Mrs. Weatherholt is the mother of six children, all living, and all married. She has only one child at home with her.

WEDNESDAY, May 31, 1905.

Miss Gaines' Great Work.

Miss Nannie B. Gaines, the missionary from Huihshin, Japan, who addressed the conference here last week, telling of the work done in that country, has accomplished as much, perhaps, as any woman missionary in the foreign field. The success of the largest Christian school for girls in Japan is largely due to her efforts. This school now has 400 pupils and its influence is felt in a wide district. When Miss Gaines took charge it was a very small school.

Billions of people were created, and his tongue was made to speak. Patient "tense" wouldn't cure him. All his friends were badly frightened. But their spirits soon were lightened.

EARLY RISER pills relieved him. The famous Little Pills "EARLY RISERS" cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Bilemness, etc., by their effect on the liver. They never gripe or sicken, but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by All Druggists.

The Old Time Parlor.

The days of the parlor are fast going. There was once a time when every family, no matter how poor, had its parlor. And generally the parlor was a most useful place, but it was the pride of the housewife. The observant citizen remembers some time ago when the lady of the house insisted that he should see "her parlor." Her husband smiled good naturedly, and they both led the way to a big front room which was locked. The door was unlocked, and the parlor got its first fresh air in months. The little family had expended much money on the parlor. Everything was new but the stuffed birds under glass cases. The design of the carpet was wonderful, and it consisted of bright red roses. One felt like stepping into a bed of flames. A horse-hoof sofa, very erect, was the principal article of furniture, while at the windows were the stiffest lace curtains you ever saw. The room had a musty smell due to long confinement. It was "luxury imprisoned" on a small scale and the finest example of the old time useless parlor—Manchester Union.

Shaved While He Slept.

"My first day in India," said the tourist, "I was surprised when I awoke in the morning to feel how smooth my face was."

"By Jove," I said, "how slowly my beard grew yesterday! I would need to shave today!"

"It is, however, a matter of religion with me to shave every morning, and so I had the native surgeon, a man provided by my agent to fetch me shaving things. The native smiled."

"But you are already shaved, sir," he said.

"Already shaved?" said I.

"Yes, sir," he answered, "I shaved you while you slept. That is the custom here."

"I found that he was right. I found that in India these wonderful native servants shave their masters in bed every morning without waking them."

"All through my stay in India I was shaved like that. It was almost enough to keep me in that hot and torrid country forever!"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Bottomless Pit.

There is a bottomless pit in the mountains of Hualalai, back of Kailua, in the Hawaiian Islands. It is about four feet in diameter. The pit is peculiar from the fact that it sucks in the air with remarkable force. Pieces of paper placed over the mouth do not float gently down, but are suddenly drawn in and disappear with startling rapidity. The air rushing into the pit can be distinctly felt by people standing on the edge. Strange sounds are heard also. Every night the inhabitants of the locality distinctly hear a noise similar to the blowing of a deep steamship whistle. The noise is heard for about five seconds and then subsides for a space of about ten minutes and then resumes for another five seconds.

Addresses in Persia.

The addresses in Persian upon letters which go through the postoffice at Calcutta are often quaint and puzzling. An Indian paper recently translated one as follows: "If the Almighty please—Let this envelope, having arrived at the city of Calcutta, in the neighborhood of Calcuttola, at the counting house of Sirajoddin and Ibrahim, merchants, be referred to and read by the happy light of my eyes, of virtuous manners and beloved of the heart—Mean Shikhi Inayat Ali, may his life be long. Written on the tenth of the blessed Ruzman, Saturday, in the year 1291 of the Hegira of our Prophet, and dispatched at Bahrang."

Preaches at Colored Church.

Rev. E. M. Bogges, of Beaver Dam, preached at Asbury Methodist church last Wednesday evening. Rev. Bogges attended the conference and was appointed to preach for the colored people by Presiding Elder J. T. Rushing, on the request of Rev. P. L. King.

Rev. W. H. Pope, pastor of Asbury M. E. church, was introduced to the conference Thursday.

Concerning Reading.

Of course reading may become a mere indulgence and dissipation, a habit to be corrected; also it is very evident that many great, resolute natures have been built up with little reading or by much reading of a few books and much pondering—much reading of men, of opinions, of events, rather than of the printed page. Men like Cromwell and Lincoln and others who have changed the course of modern history have been so nurtured. We could even point to a very great and effective modern scientific genius who, with an apparent aversion to scientific literature, gets his learning not so much from books as from experiments and from the "twenty question" system intelligently applied to friendly experts—Cortury.

Valiant Volunteers.

During one of the frequent revolutions in Haiti the commander of the government forces at Port au Prince made a requisition on the authorities at Cape Haitien for men to aid in putting down the rebels.

After a somewhat rough experience of two or three days the authorities set together the required number of men and loaded them aboard ship. Then the following message was sent: "Commander Government Forces, Port au Prince."

"I send you per steamer Saginaw today 10 volunteers. Please return the receipt with which they are bound. COMMANDER AT PORT HAITIEN."

No Champagne For Prisoners.

At the breaking out of the Crimean war Eliza Rachel, the celebrated French tragedienne, was at St. Petersburg. Just before leaving the Russian capital some of the officials of the city came to her in her honor. At the end of the feast one of the Russian officers, a nobleman of high rank, said to Rachel in a bantering sort of way:

"We will not let you 'goody' but merely au revoir, for we will soon be in Paris to drink your health in sparkling champagne."

"Monsieur," replied Rachel, "France is not rich enough to treat all her prisoners of war to champagne."

Diplomatic.

"Of course the earrings are quite pretty," she said, with just a tinge of disappointment, "but the stones are very small."

"But, my dear," replied Mr. Phox, "if they were any larger they'd be all out of proportion to the size of your ears."—Philadelphia Press.

The Baby's Way.

Friend-I suppose the baby is fond of you? Papa-Fond of me? Why, he sleeps all night when I'm not at home and says up all night just to enjoy my society—Town and Country.

The Snow Line.

Snow, even in the tropics, never melts, but remains continuously all the year round above the height of 10,000 feet. In colder climes the snow line is much lower than this.

There will be mistakes in divinity soon, even in the tropics, never melts, but remains continuously all the year round above the height of 10,000 feet. In colder climes the snow line is much lower than this.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at Short & Haynes' drug store; price 50c.

Backache, "The Blues"

Both Symptoms of Organic Derangement in Women—Thousands of Sufferers Find Relief.

How often do we hear women say: "It seems as though my back would break," "Don't speak to me, I am all out of sorts?" These significant remarks prove that the system requires attention. Backache and "the blues" are direct symptoms of an inward trouble which will sooner or later declare itself. It may be caused by diseased kidneys or some uterine derangement. Nature requires assistance and at once, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound instantly asserts its curative powers in all these peculiar ailments of women. It has been the standby of intelligent American women for twenty years, and the ablest specialists agree that it is the most universally successful remedy for women's ills known to medicine.

The following letters from Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Cotrelly are among the many thousands which Mrs. Pinkham has received this year from those whom she has relieved.

"My such testimony is convincing. Mrs. J. G. Holmes, of Larimore, North Dakota, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I have suffered everything with backache and womb trouble—I felt the trouble run on until my system was in such a state that I was unable to be about, and then it was I commenced to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If I had only known how much suffering I would have saved, I should have taken it months sooner—for a few weeks' treatment made me well and strong. My backache and backache were all gone and I suffer no pain at my menstrual periods, whereas before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I suffered intense pain."

Mrs. Emma Cotrelly, 109 East 12th Street, New York City, writes:

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's Ills.

Union Star and will join him later at Springfield. Mr. Hamman has been employed here by the Henderson Route as boiler maker.

Farmers to Hold Wheat.

Owensboro, Ky., May 24.—M. T. Westfield, county organizer of the A. S. of E., spoke on Tuesday night at Maceo to a crowd that filled the school house. On Monday night he spoke at Haywood chapel. He will be at Yelvington tonight and at Thurston on Thursday.

The chief matter of interest in this part of the county just now is the wheat, and it is being planned for the farmers to act in concert so that the very best price may be obtained. Several of the growers have already provided themselves with sacks and this, they claim, is the first step to independence in the matter of getting a good price.

Carpenter's Strikes to Drive a Nail.

How many hammer strokes does a carpenter use in driving a nail? Perhaps not one carpenter in a thousand or one layman in ten times that number can tell or ever think of it. The truth of the matter is this: The carpenter takes seven strokes in driving a nail into ordinary wood and twelve regular strokes and two finishing taps in driving nails into hard wood.

These figures are furnished by a man who works at night and sleeps—or tries to sleep—by day and whose bedroom window opens out upon a tall building in course of erection. He figured the average number of hammer strokes for nine mornings and, having learned for nine mornings, and having learned the new building is completed.

He discovered that the carpenter drives an average of three nails a minute in soft wood and a fraction under three in hard wood. At this rate he would drive 1,440 nails a day in soft wood if he keeps up the gait steadily and 1,282 in hard wood. He would give 10,080 hammer strokes in soft wood and 20,160 in hard wood.—Chicago Tribune.

Popular Names Abroad.

Numerous are the names of the Smith family, they do not occupy as prominent a place in European directories as they do in those of England or at home, though they take up much room in the Berlin directory. 5,000 Schmidts being registered. They have to give room, however, to the Schultzes and Mullers. In Brussels the Janssen family is the most numerous represented, while the greater space in the Paris directory is given over to the Martinets.

Morrell and Vitelli are the names most numerous in Naples, and here the Smiths sink into insignificance; but, like the word "hello," the name of Smith is heard around the world and is represented in practically every directory published, more than may be said of any other surname, whatever its nationality.

England's Round Tree.

The heart of England is a sturdy member that throbs responsive to every call of duty. That, indeed, is not common to England, but is a heritage of every land where the love of country is deep in the breast of man. But the real heart of England's exact geographical center—is altogether another proposition. So far from being occupied by patriotic sentiment, a tree exactly fills the space. It is called Round Tree and is both a picturesque and distinguished growth. Close about might mark the spot, but this living monument which greets as the snow melts is much more fitting. This ancient oak upholds the national strength, and the associations attached to it thickly as leaves in midsummer make it a thing of affection and veneration.

False Dice.

The following passage explains the various methods of cheating at dice in the Elizabethan era so well that I transcribe it in full for the benefit of commentators on old plays, etc., says a correspondent of London Notes and Queries. "What false dice use they? as dice stopped up with quicksilver and beards, dice of vantage, dattes, gourdies to chop and change when they lyeste, to lette the tress dice fall upon the table, and so take up the false; if they be true dice, what shylte will they make to set ye one of them with sylding, with cogging, with foysting, with cogging, as they call it?—Ascham's "Toxophilus," 1545.

Didn't Have to Pay Rent.

This is said to be how William Waldorf Astor gave the order for the fine office built for the Pall Mall Gazette: Mr. Astor was signing checks one

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and grow. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a salivary check, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the system by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs in a healthy condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted tissue in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whiskey or other intoxicants.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' is a stick man's friend," writes Geo. N. Turner, Esq., (Ex. Financial Secretary International Brotherhood of Firemen, 28 California Street, Denver, Colo.). "For the past seven years my health gradually failed. I lost my appetite, became nervous and debilitated, very despondent and unable to sleep. No medicine helped me until I tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It put new life into my veins and increased vitality until I could once more enjoy life and attend to my business. Eight bottles cured me and I am glad to recommend it."

Dr. Pierce's Pills—only one a day will regulate and cleanse and invigorate a foul, bad stomach, torpid liver, or sluggish bowels.

My Breath.

Shortness of Breath Is One of the Commonest Signs of Heart Disease.

Notwithstanding what many physicians say, heart disease can be cured. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure has permanently restored to health many thousands who had found no relief in the medicines (compatible or incompatible) of regular practicing physicians. It has proved itself unique in the history of medicine, by being so uniformly successful in curing those diseases.

Nearly always, one of the first signs of trouble is shortness of breath. Whether it comes as a result of walking or running up stairs, or of other exertion, if the heart is unable to meet this extra demand upon its pumping powers—there is something wrong with it.

The very best thing you can do, is to take Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. It will go to the foundation of the trouble, and make a permanent cure by strengthening and renewing the nerves. "I know that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is a great remedy. For a number of years I suffered from shortness of breath, smothering spells, and pains in my left side. For months at a time I would be unable to go on my left side, and if I lay flat on my back would nearly smother. I began to improve at once, and after taking several bottles of the Heart Cure the pain in my side and other symptoms vanished. I am now entirely well. All those dreadful smothering spells are a thing of the past."—F. P. J. BARKER, Middletown, Conn.

If the first bottle does not help you, the druggist will refund your money.

How It Was Pronounced. Who was it who declared that a German in despair at the difficulties of English pronunciation said that we write "caoutchouc" and read it "gutta percha"? He was not driven to such desperation as one of his countrymen who gave up the study of the language on being told that the "Mikado" was pronounced "a decided success."—Chicago News.

His Course.

Farmer Cooks—No, he said he was gettin' ready to take a preparatory session. Mandy—A three months' course, I presume? Farmer Cooks—No, he said he was gettin' ready to take a preparatory session.

More Than Engaged.

"I'd like to see your mistress. Is she engaged?" "Why, sir, she's married; been married for twenty years?"

Lighting London in 1715.

The question of the lighting of London was settled in simple fashion in 1715. The common council "repealed, annulled and made void all the former acts concerning the lighting of London" as a preliminary measure and then proceeded to enact that "all housekeepers whose house, door or gateway fronted or lies next to any street, lane or public passage or place of the said city shall in every dark night—that is, every night between the second night after each full moon and the seventh night after each full moon—set or hang out one or more lights with sufficient cotton wicks that shall continue to burn from 6 o'clock at night till 11 o'clock of the same night on penalty of a shilling."

"Good Horse, Good Rider."

Judging from the following story which Arthur J. Smythe tells in his biography of William Tell, it is evident that the practice of betting on horse races was among the great distractions of the popular actor.

When any one asked him what horse he was going to back he would say: "I'm going to back a little filly I've often backed before. I've never won anything on it, yet, strange to say, I've never lost a penny."

"Oh, whatever horse is that?" might have been the inquiry. "A little filly called Common Sense, ridden by Tommy Let It Alone," was the invariable answer.—London Telegraph.

Early Crop Reports.

(Up-To-Date Farming.)

The A. S. of E. does not believe in them. Such reports can not affect the final yields, and are at best pure guesses on the final yields. They serve to unsettle business, and are in the interest of speculators and not in the interest of farmers.

The prices for the 1904 crops were fixed by farmers or should have been. They should bring the fair prices and would, if preliminary crop reporting and boards of trade for speculative purpose, were done away with. It will be time to decide the value of the 1905 crops when they are made.

When the proper time comes the A. S. of E. will ask for crop reports and then issue its bulletins of yields and price.

More Double Track

Writing in The Raleigh Post of yesterday, Mr. J. C. Caddell foresees the time when trains running between Greensboro and Charlotte will dash through a continuous city, and says that the next ninety-nine-year lease of the North Carolina Railroad by the Southern will call for four tracks instead of one. So, indeed, will; and this reminds me of the agreeable statement in the Washington correspondence of The Post of yesterday that a force of hands will be employed to begin grading on the double track between Greensboro and High Point. It is a continuing wonder how the Southern Railway contrives to handle so many trains, passenger and freight, on a single track, between Greensboro and Charlotte, with so few accidents, and a continuing cause of congratulation to the alert and clear-headed train dispatchers. The Southern is a great system, the most effective developer of the South, and it has not undertaken its double-tracking policy too early. Think of the volume of its traffic fifty, even twenty-five years from now.—Charlotte Observer.

AN AWFUL SKIN DISEASE

Sores Covered Neck and Cheeks—Itched Day and Night—Nothing Did Me Any Good—Was Growing Worse.

CURED BY CUTICURA AT COST OF $4.50

Miss Nellie Vander Wiele, of Lakeside, N. Y., writing under date of April 18, 1904, says: "I do wish you could publish this letter in the newspapers, so that others suffering as I have may see it and be helped. I suffered for many months with an awful skin disease, sores covering my ears, neck, and cheeks. Scabs would form and they would swell and itch day and night. Then they would break open and blood and matter run out. I had tried many different remedies, but none of them did me any good. I was growing worse when I tried the Cuticura Remedies. The first application helped me, and when I had used two cakes of Cuticura Soap, three boxes of Cuticura Ointment, and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, I was completely cured."

TORTURING, DISFIGURING MUMOURS, ECZEMAS, ITCHINGS, AND CHAFINGS CURED BY CUTICURA

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worried parents, as in milk crust, tetter and eczema; all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt by the testimony of the civilized world.

Murill, returned from Owensboro Friday.

Rev. Noah Gabbert, of Evansville, Ind., delivered some excellent sermons at this place Friday night, Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night.

Pearl Bruner, the eleven-year-old son of James Bruner, died on Tuesday of last week at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Corley, with whom he was living. His father was called from Owensboro but death came before he reached the bedside of his son. The funeral services were held last Wednesday at Bethlehem church, Rev. Ciero Corley officiating, and the interment was at Bethlehem cemetery.

Hot Weather Piles. Persons afflicted with Piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make piles more painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co.

Good Advice. Is to tell your neighbors to use Paracamp for Cold in the Head or Chest. It relieves Colds, Catarrhs and Sore Throat quicker than any other known remedy, because it opens the passages, induces perspiration and removes congestion. It drives away that "stopped up" feeling and draws out all fever and inflammation. Try it. It won't take a minute, and it will relieve you in less time.

German Baby's Swathe.

Of all housewives in Europe probably the German is the hardest worked, and of all European mothers the German practices most completely the art of swathing and padding her baby and putting it on the shelf. The German baby is swaddled in a long, narrow pillow, which is made to meet completely round him, being tucked over his feet and turned under his solemn chin. Three bands of gray blue ribbons are then passed round the whole bundle and tied in large, flowy bows about where his chest, his waist and his ankles may be supposed to be.

In this guise he can be deposited as an ornament either on the mantelpiece, in a bed or on the kitchen dresser or on the drawing room table. How fond the Germans are of this presentation of baby may be guessed from the fact that it figures largely in their picture books, among their dolls and even in the bakers' shops at Easter time, made of dough and covered with sugar, to be devoured by greedily live babies.—Strand Magazine.

The Uncomfortable Collar. "I don't know what is the matter with these collars," said Smartbody to the salesman. "They seemed all right when I bought them yesterday. But I had to use a button hook to connect them with my collar button this morning. They fit as though they were intended for my little brother."

"There are two ways to put on a collar," replied the salesman, "and you seem to have chosen the wrong way. I noticed it when you were here yesterday, but it was not up to me to tell you. I've been jumped on for volunteering that information more than once. Most men think it does not make any difference whether you button the right side or the left of a collar first. It makes all the difference in the world in the comfort and set of the collar, no matter what shape it is. Undo that collar you are wearing, button the right side first, and you'll be glad you're alive."—New York Press.

Frank English Servants.

The English servants, whether they prove better when engaged, are certainly franker than American servants in declaring their weaknesses in advertising for employment. The columns of a London paper disclose their amiable candidness. In the first advertisement the applicant confesses to "drink a temptation, but not an inebriate," and next pleads as her recommendation that she is "faithful, but plain of speech;" a third requires a place where "manners were light," but does not say of what intellectual work she is capable, while a fourth is described as a "dishonest girl of seventeen." Should the mistress be too opportunistic to engage any of the above attractive servants she has still another opportunity—perhaps "she will be willing to train for domestic service a rough, coarse girl desirous of redeeming character."

The Postmark. Great Britain, it is said, can, without fear of contradiction, claim the honor of having originated the postmark. The first one, which was used in London as long ago as 1596, was a very simple affair, consisting of a small circle divided into two parts. In the top portion were two letters indicating the month, while in the lower half the day of the month was shown. No endeavor was made to denote the year, and it is only by the dates of the letters on which the mark is impressed that it is possible to fix the date of its use.

Alfred Heston, of Hardinsburg, was here Sunday.

A Good Suggestion.

Mr. C. B. Wainwright of Lemon City, Fla., has written the manufacturers that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pains in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drunk. That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. "It seems to go at the right spot instantly." For sale by Short & Haynes.

MISS MILDRED KELLER.

RESTORED TO HEALTH. THANKS TO PERUNA.

Friends Were Alarmed—Advised Change of Climate.

Miss Mildred Keller, 718 13th street, N. W., Washington, D. C., writes: "I can safely recommend Peruna for catarrh. I had it for years and it would respond to no kind of treatment, or if it did it was only temporary, and on the slightest provocation the trouble would come back."

"I was in such a state that my friends were alarmed about me, and I was advised to leave this climate. Then I tried Peruna, and to my great joy found it helped me from the first dose I took, and a few bottles cured me."

"It built up my constitution. I regained my appetite, and I feel that I am perfectly well and strong."—Mildred Keller.
